

Enetpulse Announces Fantasy Gaming Deal with Danske Spil

By Enetpulse ApS

Dated: May 07, 2009

Enetpulse, the established live sports data provider is pleased to announce that it will be supplying a range of fantasy gaming products to the Danish state lottery operators Danske Spil over the next 3 years.

The collaboration between Enetpulse and Danske Spil will see the release of a series of fantasy games with a minimum of 6 new games per year. The focus will be on Soccer, Cycling and NFL and new games will include the Danish SAS League, the English Premier League and Tour de France with the option for additional fantasy games such as the Handball Championships.

Commenting on the agreement with Danske Spil, Simon Skarsholm, Managing Director at Enetpulse said, “We’ve been doing fully managed fantasy games for a range of online and media companies like TV2 Denmark and TV2 Norway for some time now but this is the first with a State owned gaming supplier. With this announcement, Enetpulse continues to enhance its position as a leading provider of online fantasy games and we are excited by the opportunity to assist Danske Spil over the next 3 years.”

Head of Online at Danske Spil, Lars Runov, commented, “We are certain that we have chosen the best supplier of fantasy games for Danske Spil. And coupled with our strong Oddset brand and large customer base we expect our fantasy games to experience strong growth. We are very excited about the future of fantasy games in Danske Spil”.
