

Dr. Arocha of Texas Joins the Ranks of the Coalition of Independent Hair Restoration Physicians

By The Hair Transplant Network

Dated: May 13, 2009

Given the positive response from our hair restoration community and Dr. Arocha's proven track record in producing ultra refined results, Dr. Arocha has been approved for membership in the Coalition of Independent Hair Restoration Physicians.

Only those hair restoration physicians who have a proven track record of performing state of the art hair transplantation are recommended on the Hair Transplant Network. An elite group of surgeons who regularly perform larger densely packed sessions of ultra refined follicular unit hair transplantation when appropriate for the patient qualify for the Coalition of Independent Hair Restoration Physicians.

Recently, we sought the advice and opinions of our hair restoration community about potentially inviting Dr. Bernard Arocha to join the ranks of the Coalition.

After visiting and observing Dr. Arocha perform live surgery and considering your input, we are pleased to announce and welcome Dr. Arocha into the Coalition of Independent Hair Restoration Physicians.

To see our membership criteria for the Coalition and highlights from our visit to Dr. Arocha's clinic and observations of him in live surgery, visit our resources below.
