AXIGEN brings mobile email and groupware functionalities to BlackBerry SmartPhones through the NotifySync Solution.

Bucharest, Romania and San Jose, USA - May 28, 2009 - AXIGEN (<http://www.axigen.com>), the professional messaging solution vendor, and Notify Technology Corporation (OTC BB: NTFY; <http://www.notifycorp.com>), today announced the signing of a technological agreement aimed at bringing AXIGEN Mail Server's mobile email and groupware functionalities to BlackBerry® smart phone users.

Adding to its existing high-end Push Email and PIM Synchronization capabilities, the AXIGEN and NotifySync solution integration grants business travelers instant access from their BlackBerry devices to relevant data such as messages, contacts or tasks, enabling them to increase productivity and efficiency.

"We are excited to provide AXIGEN users with wireless synchronized email and PIM using their BlackBerry handheld of choice," said Paul DePond President & CEO of Notify Technology Corporation. "Our NotifySync solution will provide organizations of all sizes a secure and comprehensive synchronization solution for their mobile BlackBerry users."

"Giving businesses the freedom they need to reach top level performance in their activity is paramount to AXIGEN. We put great effort into providing them with the latest mobile technology, adapted to any mobile device they are currently using. Thus, we are actively supporting their goals of increasing productivity and subsequently revenue, without requiring unnecessary familiarization with new devices and applications," stated Oana Bornaz, AXIGEN CEO.

One of the top ten messaging solutions in the world according to The Radicati Group, the AXIGEN Mail Server has a strong focus on meeting the needs of business customers, either directly or through Service Providers employing the Software as a Service (SaaS) model. Winner of the ServerWatch 2007 Product Excellence Award for the Communications Server category, AXIGEN runs on several Linux and BSD distributions, on Solaris, on Windows operating systems, on PowerPC and SPARC architectures and is becoming the messaging solution of choice for a growing number of service providers and enterprises worldwide.
