

Dr. Carman of California Joins the Ranks of the Coalition of Independent Hair Restoration Physicians

By The Hair Transplant Network

Dated: Jun 05, 2009

Given the positive response from our hair restoration community and Dr. Carman's proven record of producing only the best results, Dr. Carman has been approved for membership in the Coalition of Independent Hair Restoration Physicians.

Recently we sought the input and opinions of our hair loss forum community about potentially inviting Dr. Timothy Carman to join the ranks of the elite Coalition. View their input by visiting the "Potential Coalition Membership for Dr. Timothy Carman" on our discussion forum.

Physician members of the Coalition of Independent Hair Restoration Physicians must meet and maintain the demanding standards set by this community and consistently produce excellent results.

Based on all the evidence we've collected over the last year since his approval for recommendation including feedback from his patients and other leading hair restoration physicians Dr. Carman has been accepted into the highly esteemed Coalition of Independent Hair Restoration Physicians.

Feel free to congratulate him by visiting his featured potential coalition membership thread on our hair loss forum.
