

Ronald Reagan Elementary Set To Open Near New DR Horton Cedar Park Community Of Creekview

Top Austin real estate agent, Kenn Renner (www.BuyAustin.com), reports that homebuyers are being drawn to the new Creekview (www.BuyCreekview.com) community by the new Leander I.S.D. Ronald Reagan Elementary school.

June 6, 2009 - PRLog -- Austin, Texas – As Austin real estate agent Kenn Renner takes homebuyers on a tour through the model homes and the neighborhood community center at DR Horton's newest Cedar Park community – he points out the large buildings being erected just beyond the tree line: "There is where the new Ronald Reagan Elementary School (<http://www.buyaustin.com>) is being built". His clients, Jenny and Michael Rodriguez, smile in agreement. Jenny comments, "We are very concerned about our children getting the best education possible and we feel confident that this school will provide it." The new elementary school is one of the major reasons why they have targeted Creekview as their neighborhood of choice. As an added convenience, the middle school (Artie Henry Middle School) and high school (Vista Ridge High School) are also within walking distance of the community. Kenn adds, "Leander ISD is one of the highest rated school districts in the area, consistently ranking high on test scores and attendance. Vista Ridge High School is acclaimed for its high academic ranking and its great sports programs."

Ronald Reagan Elementary (<http://www.buyaustin.com>) is scheduled to open in August 2009 – promising state of the art classrooms and superior design. Leander ISD has redefined elementary school design around six key concepts:

- Flexibility & Adaptation
- Integration
- Hands-on learning
- Smaller learning communities
- Push in vs. Pull out daily curriculum
- Instant Resources at Fingertip Access

Kenn continues, "Reagan Elementary will be a great addition to the already highly acclaimed Cedar Park schools, along with the other schools in the Leander I.S.D. Several of my clients are school teachers and they have chosen this area to put their kids through school. They include the Coburn family who were recently featured on one of my episodes of HGTV's House Hunters."
