

University of Phoenix Holds Omaha Commencement Ceremonies

More than 350 students will earn associates, bachelors and masters degrees from University of Phoenix - Omaha campus Saturday, June 20, 2009 at a ceremony to be held at the Holland Performing Arts center at 2:00 p.m. in downtown Omaha.

June 16, 2009 - PRLog -- Teri Schelm of Omaha started working on her degree from a wheelchair following a car accident. David Gross of Grand Island was a soldier in Iraq during Operation Desert Storm when he began his degree program. Chris Cxerzinski will be attending his 40th high school reunion next year having earned his college degree. Their fellow students are individuals from different parts of the region, employed and unemployed, single parents and working parents, who are all earning their degrees to build a brighter future for themselves while serving as positive role models for their children. These are the stories of the graduates who will participate in this year's commencement ceremonies from University of Phoenix, Omaha campus on Saturday, June 20, 2009.

More than 88 graduates participating in Saturday's commencement ceremonies are earning associate, bachelors and master's degrees. The event is being held at the Holland Performing Arts Center beginning at 2:00 p.m. David Gross will speak to his fellow graduates about the importance of an education and how his life has changed as a result of his degree from University of Phoenix.

"This is an emotional time for many of our graduates," said Jason Pfaff, the Campus Director at University of Phoenix Omaha campus. "Watching individuals who are celebrating a major life accomplishment is one the greatest parts of being involved with this great University."

In addition to conferring degrees, the Boys & Girls Club of the Midlands scholarship recipients will be honored and presented with their full-ride scholarships. Stephanie James, a Boys & Girls Club alum, parent of a Carter Lake Boys & Girls Club member and current staff member of Boys & Girls Club and Virgil Patlan II, a Boys & Girls Club alumni of the South Omaha Boys & Girls Club, parent of a South Omaha Boys & Girls club member and also a Boys & Girls Club staff member are this year's first two recipients.

University of Phoenix began its partnership with Boys & Girls Club of the Midlands in 2007, presenting five scholarships each year for three years to individuals who are students, parents or staff of Boys & Girls Club.

This graduating class represents residents of the Omaha – Council Bluffs metropolitan area as well as Lincoln, Norfolk, Grand Island, Falls City, Ames, IA, Sioux Falls, SD, and Virginia Beach, Virginia, among others. A complete listing of the graduates is listed below.
