The CCI Job Board will highlight compliance job openings both nationally and internationally, and will draw on the expertise of Conselium, a leading executive search firm with a specialty in ethics and compliance and the official sponsor of Corporate Compliance Insights.

“Adding the job board to the breadth of content already available through our knowledge-focused compliance forum was a no-brainer,” said Corporate Compliance Insights Managing Director Maurice Gilbert. “Visitors to our compliance forum are GRC professionals with an interest in learning more about their industry. This will give companies a great opportunity to reach potential executive candidates, while allowing us to offer our readers another layer of value.”

The CCI Job Board was launched in response to numerous requests from visitors and readers who had hoped to see the CCI compliance forum provide information regarding compliance job openings. Now, Corporate Compliance Insights is able to offer a leading job board dedicated to providing executive-level positions in governance, compliance, ethics, and risk management.

Posting compliance job openings on the CCI Job Board is a free service offered by Corporate Compliance Insights to accommodate its readership and companies who support CCI’s mission of providing a comprehensive compliance forum for knowledge exchange and education.

Here are a few examples of job openings already posted on the CCI Job Board:

- * Senior VP of Corporate Compliance for Cablevision
- * Director of International Compliance for Pharmaceutical Company in Switzerland
- * Director of Global Compliance at Fortune 500 Healthcare Products Company
