

Natural Soap Made Of Sea Kelp & Sea Moss

By Rachael Thomas

Dated: Jun 19, 2009

The seaside scent in this natural beauty facial and body soap coupled with the invigorating hint of cocoa butter will make you feel like you are relaxing by the ocean.

This Sea Kelp soap is rich in skin-nourishing . *Sea Kelp is rich in nutrients and, is an excellent stimulant and exfoliant. Sea herbs have been known to heal, hydrate, detoxify and re-mineralize the skin. Their amino acids, and slippery texture, act as a conditioner to the skin as well. Sea kelp gently polishes the skin, while the unrefined cocoa butter moisturizes . We also added chamomile herbs to stimulant exfoliating. This soap is amazingly refreshing in every shower find more about the soap on ours web <http://naturalhandcraftedsoap.com>

Sea Moss is a unique blend of Bergamot, Orchid, Jasmine and Violet with supporting notes of Ozone (air), Sandalwood, Musk and of course, Moss. This fragrance could be described as fresh, green and almost a little kelp-y. The fragrance of Sea Moss is like Ocean rain. The seaside scent in this natural beauty facial and body soap coupled with the invigorating hint of cocoa butter and sea kelp it will make you feel like you are relaxing by the ocean. find us at <http://naturalhandcraftedsoap.com>
