Concept Interactive Counted Among Top Finalists for the 2009 Microsoft Worldwide Partner Conference Awards in Information Worker Solutions, Enterprise Content Management and Forms Development, and Search categories

Today, Concept Interactive announced it has been selected as a 2009 Microsoft Worldwide Partner Conference Awards finalist in Information Worker Solutions (IWS) - Enterprise Content Management and Forms Development, and Search categories.

The annual awards honor Microsoft Registered, Certified and Gold Certified partners for delivering exemplary solutions for their customers during the past year. The IWS- Enterprise Content Management and Forms Development, and IWS - Search Partner of the Year awards recognizes exceptional partners who have excelled in offering breakthrough Microsoft Office system solutions.

“This award further demonstrates our leadership in leveraging Microsoft Office SharePoint Server technologies to solve customer challenges in the most innovative ways. We’re honored to receive this award and be recognized by Microsoft at Global and Regional levels,” said Christopher Federico, President and CEO.

“Partners are the key to igniting business innovation through great technology as well as helping customer drive down costs,” said Allison L. Watson, Corporate Vice President, Worldwide Partner Group, Microsoft Corp. “Congratulations to the 2009 WPC Award finalists who have demonstrated a superior level of expertise as well as a focus on delivering customer value. We look forward to seeing these partners fulfill their limitless potential as they continue to provide customers with world-class Microsoft solutions.”

Concept Interactive, along with other technology partner winners and finalists in each of the award categories, will be recognized at the Microsoft Worldwide Partner Conference 2009, the company’s premier annual event for industry partners, being held July 13–16 in New Orleans.
