

Epic Host Announces $7.49 Domain Names

By The Epic Host

Dated: Jun 29, 2009

The new price is for .Coms and will include all registrations and transfers.

Bolivar - The Epic Host announced today that they would be launching a new lower priced .COM starting today.

All .COM registrations and transfers are now only $7.49 per year.

This is in combination with the current deal of $1.99 domains for all new hosting purchases.

I feel this is a great chance for us to increase our userbase. We are looking to expand our reach a little and I think it will take something very special in order to get users interested in our services." - Said Eric Miner, President of Epic Host.
