Anne Chambers faces the current market downtrend with optimism and advice for woman investors

Since 2004, Anne Y. Chambers has used Charis Financial to share her wealth of financial and insurance knowledge to the female investors of the Orangeville and Brampton area.

According to Chambers “Women think, feel and behave differently about money than men do.” She understands the unique issues that women face regarding money. Chambers works with women so that they can empower themselves by taking control of their finances. Not only can they plan for the future, Chambers wants to show women how to build wealth using effective tax and investment strategies.

Chambers is a Certified Facilitator for the Secrets of Successful High Earners program. She believes knowledge is power and she is dedicated to providing the local female population with all the tools they need to build true wealth. Besides the financial planning and insurance services, she offers seminars that are built with the goal of sharing her vast knowledge.
