First try and figure out why it happened and follow these steps to make your own plan to get your ex boyfriend back.

1. Try and Figure out what Triggered the Conflict in the First Place

Any break-up happens for various reasons. Nothing happens just out of nowhere, thus it is either you or him that has been going wrong or maybe both of you. By figuring out what are the main reason for the break-up you're basically taking the first step to get your ex boyfriend back. Often times knowing the reasons of the break-up will make it more clear for you to know what has to be done to reverse the whole situation and get your ex boyfriend back.

2. Show Him Trust Even If He's Dating Someone Else

It is the human nature, men are born as the stronger race even if women will never understand it. They're quite hard to convince thus they will require a lot more trust from your side. Even if he's dating someone else for the past couple of days don't cheat on him just because he's doing it. I'm sure there is nothing serious between him and his new girlfriend. Instead try and show him trust, show him that you still care about the relationship. Even if he has dumped you, he will be more than happy to hear that you miss him and still care about him. Try and stir him up by sending him an email or leaving a letter in his mail box with some nice words such as "I miss you", "I can't go over this break-up I want to have you back into my life again". The kind words will always help you get your ex boyfriend back even sooner than you think! And No! Don't think you're being childish you're being honest and showing him exactly what you feel.

3. Last but not Least Solve the Problem

When you manage to become less tensioned and more relaxed you will be able to understand everything more clearly, this is the time to think about solving the problem. These are just some of the basic steps you need to take after a break-up. There are a few guides out there that don't only contain basic information but step-by-step psychological mind games to get your ex boyfriend back even sooner than you think.
