

Why Keurig Single Cup Coffee Maker is so popular?

For decades, coffee connoisseurs have tried to perfect the art of home brewing. But, try as they may, getting a cup made just like it tastes in the coffee shop is no easy task. Until now! Meet the Keurig line of Single Cup Coffee Makers...

Sept. 1, 2009 - PRLog -- What makes the Keurig brand of Single Serve Coffee Makers so great?

For starters, each Keurig Coffee Maker is designed to make one cup at a time of your favorite Keurig coffee or tea. You can customize your drink to get exactly the size, temperature and flavor you want. In just seconds, a perfectly brewed cup is waiting for you to enjoy. Sleek, stylish and easy to use, Keurig One Cup Coffee Maker are quite simply the best you can get in home coffee brewing.

If that weren't enough, it gets even better! Not only is Keurig one of the most dependable and trusted names in home coffee brewing, but they have also paired with some of the best names in the coffee and tea world to bring you an amazing selection of beverages to choose from and brew in the comfort of your own home. Keurig K Cups are single-serve portions of coffee or tea that are individually packaged and portioned just right for one serving, in a multitude of flavors and brands.

How Keurig K-Cup technology ensures a perfect cup of Coffee or Tea?

Using innovative technology, Keurig Coffee Makers accommodates a K-Cup, a small plastic container filled with your favorite coffee, tea or even hot cocoa. The K-Cup is an air-tight sealed plastic container covered with a foil lid, giving you maximum freshness in each cup. When placed inside the Keurig brewer, the foil lid and the bottom of the container are punctured, allowing for a stream of hot water to pass through at a high pressure. The water streams into your mug, providing you with the freshest cup of coffee or tea possible. When brewing is complete, simply toss the used Keurig K-Cup in the waste bin. No messy grinds, no drippy tea bags.

Aside from being easy, neat and convenient, K-Cups come in a wide range of brands and flavors, making it easy to find just the drink you've been craving. All of the best names in Keurig coffee and tea, including Green Mountain Coffee Roasters, Caribou Coffee, Tully's Coffee, Celestial Seasonings and Newman's Own have their own versions of K-Cups. Whether you love Timothy's Coffee Breakfast Blend, Gloria Jean's Hazelnut Decaf, or Bigelow Tea's Mint Medley Herbal Tea, you can find just about any flavor to satisfy nearly any appetite.

Where to buy Keurig K-Cups?

As the world begins to catch on to how wonderful a Coffee K-Cup brewed on a Keurig home brewer tastes, the availability of Keurig K-Cups increases. You can find K-Cups (coffee, tea, ice tea and cocoa) in most fine supermarkets and at many coffee and tea retailers on the web. Oftentimes, retailers, such as Green Mountain Coffee Roasters, will offer a discount on K-Cups for becoming a member of their website, a free service that allows you access to discounts, coupons and giveaways. Many sites, such as GreenMountainCoffee.com offer monthly shipment programs so you'll never run out of your favorite drink. You can generally expect to pay anywhere between $10 and $15 for a twenty-four count box of K-Cups, making each cup cost less than 65 cents! A bargain considering that you can pay upwards of $5 for a drink at a high-end coffee shop.
