On a worldwide conference call yesterday to an audience of 96 Affiliates, Chris J Snook and Jeremy Brown announced a deal for No Limit Enterprises and No Limit Publishing to be acquired by TLEC. The deal will be finalized October 15 2009.

SAN DIEGO, CA –CEO of The Lifestyle Enhancement Company Chris J. Snook has just announced an acquisition of No Limit Enterprises/No Limit Publishing. No Limit's President Jeremy Brown did a worldwide webinar from his office in Sioux Falls, South Dakota on Monday August 31 along with Snook, to his existing 96 distributors from all 50 states and New Zealand, to announce the deal that will bring No Limit Enterprises under the umbrella of TLEC and allow for continued growth, expansion, and unleash international distribution of its publishing company and Internet Marketing School. The terms of the deal were undisclosed but TLEC and No Limit have released that the new structure will give TLEC a controlling interest in the Joint Venture to leverage its infrastructure and operational efficiencies for the aggressive growth plans of No Limit Enterprises.

“This is an exciting transaction because you have a growing, cash-flow positive company, that has successfully and aggressively monetized their market niche and published 140 authors in the last 60 days through their Automatic Author Program! We look forward nurturing and leveraging the management talent that starts with Jeremy Brown and believe that his company can be a top performer that will round out our portfolio and fill a gap in the internet marketing/publishing space.”- said Snook in a press conference held at The Lifestyle Enhancement Company’s offices in downtown, San Diego on Sept 1 2009 at 9am.
