Lighthouse Business Solutions announces 7 agents rank within top 10 spots for nationally ranked sales agents.

Lighthouse Business Solutions Inc., a leading direct marketing and sales agency, recognizes 7 top agents for leading performance in September.

Ryan Gardner, Eric Recchia, Julia Hisayi, Kelsey Landahl, Atif Lone, Oluniyi Lot, and Kyle Potter all ranked within the top ten out of over 200 sales agents nationally.

“This is a testament to our thorough training, our commitment to excellence and the sheer determination of our staff,” says Evans Guerrier, President, Lighthouse Business Solutions Inc. “I am thrilled at their success and am excited for further competition,” he adds.

Each representative included in the rankings released yesterday are compared in two areas – total accounts acquired and total profitability gained from total accounts acquired. Atif Lone topped both comparisons by ranking number 1 in each category.

Lone originally started in the company’s New York location after graduating from Cornell in May of 2008 with a degree in Biology. He has recently relocated to the Rhode Island location to help further the expansion efforts with Andrea Atkinson, Partner, Lighthouse Business Solutions.

“I was thrilled the Atif top the charts yet again. Although, the more exciting part to me is that Atif is setting a great example. This makes it clear he has great leadership potential and deserves a chance to show that off,” says Atkinson, Partner, Lighthouse Business Solutions.

Gardner, Recchia, and Lone hold the longest tenure at Lighthouse, giving them the most experience dealing with the company’s largest client. Landahl, Lot, and Potter, however, have all been with the company for a short amount of time – Potter being the newest to the team with only being with the company for 6 weeks.
