

Doing Business Internationally Can be Hazardous as Well as Humorous

Author Gene Myers shares the sometimes hilarious, sometimes dangerous and all too often unexpected adventures he experiences off the clock as an international businessman.

Sept. 24, 2009 - PRLog -- Here are the most memorable, unusual and downright baffling stories you will ever hear from anyone returning from a business trip overseas. Find out why Gene risked his career to play basketball in Mexico, or what it was like being held captive in Iraq during a business visit. He'll tell you about his unforgettable year living in Saudi Arabia and relive his experience of being "held up" in the Netherlands by two six-year olds!

This, and so much more, is part of what happens after hours in the unexpectedly exciting and hilarious life of an international businessman. Who knew international business could be so adventurous?
