Stone+Wood Outlet, Portland, Oregon and Uncle Hilde's Lumber Outlet, Tilton, New Hampshire announce their joint venture web site for decking sales over the web, www.Decking-Outlet.com.

www.Decking-Outlet.com is a new joint venture web site by Stone+Wood Outlet and Uncle Hilde's Lumber Outlet to help sell wood and composite decking over the internet. The new web site allows for one central place to post product availability, give customers real time freight estimates, and provide a wealth of information to the retail consumer.

Decking-Outlet.com takes advantage of the group's expertise in LTL freight, with a real time freight quoting system connected via XHTML with Priority 1 Inc. Customers just need to enter a quantity and a zip code and within seconds the best LTL freight rate available is displayed.

The joint venture specializes in offering a wide variety of products including Ipe Select Grade, Cumaru, TigerWood, Angelim Pedra and Composites such as Fiberon and Sensibuilt. Pricing is said to be the lowest available for similar quality products. Decking-Outlet.com takes full advantage of Stone+Wood and Uncle Hilde's purchasing power.

The www.Decking-Outlet.com web site was built using Microsoft C# and SQL Server with proprietary back-end software for managing orders and inventory. Contact Steve May at 425.418.9360 for more information.
