Western Herbal and Nutrition has come up with something new: an effective, convenient way to get the fiber your body needs. The new, innovative colon cleanse capsule is now available for distribution throughout North and South America.

Hayward, California – September, 2009 – Western Herbal and Nutrition, Inc. has recently introduced Complete Colon Care in capsules to compliment their successful powder formula. The new capsules are available today online at:

After receiving tremendous feedback from thousands of customers, Western Herbal and Nutrition has successfully developed a 3900mg capsule that replicates the benefits of their current Complete Colon Care Powder formula. The new capsule was designed to allow customers a convenient way of utilizing the product while travelling compared to the bulk powder option.

Both the Complete Colon Care powder and capsules are formulated to help restore colon health and maintain balance in the digestive system, addressing the root cause of medical conditions related to I.B.S., Crohn's disease, diverticulitis, hemorrhoids, and other similar disorders. By providing a natural source of bulking fiber, Complete Colon Care is highly effective in alleviating both constipation and diarrhea. Gentle enough for daily maintenance while offering a safe, effective, long-term solution for cleansing the colon and achieving digestive regularity.

Complete Colon Care contains several additional ingredients that help to soothe the digestive tract and establish an environment in which healthy intestinal flora can aid in the digestion and absorption of vital nutrients and minerals.

Western Herbal and Nutrition, Inc. is committed to the pursuit of addressing specific health problems and challenges with a combination of dedicated and knowledgeable customer service support coupled with innovative, GMP certified products custom formulated to provide maximum benefits.
