Oct. 10, 2009 - PRLog -- Beginner piano lessons are something which is desired by piano newbie's. This is mainly because you want to know how you should practice when starting out.

The solution

The main solution to this problem is to either use an online piano which includes beginner piano lessons or get a good piano instructor and learn via books.

The cheapest method is via online courses. Choosing the right piano course will allow you to learn the piano in a fun and enjoyable way. These courses include beginner modules so that you don't have to go through the hassle of drawing out practice schedules etc.

This is my recommended way largely because of the great value that's also included in these courses. Video and audio files are provided as well as ebooks, so you have a huge variety of ways to learn. Games are also included, these games can improve you hand positioning as well as other aspects of piano playing.

Learning this way is hands down the cheapest way, however you need to be focused and willing to push yourself and progress without anyone telling you.

So you need to know if this type of learning approach is suitable for you.
