If your present economic situation is such that you are contemplating Bankruptcy, it may very well be in your best interest to do an IRS Offer and Compromise first and then handle your other creditors later in a Bankruptcy Petition.

Filing bankruptcy gives additional time for the IRS to collect the Tax Debt. If you go into bankruptcy and emerge from the process still owing the IRS, the IRS gains extra time to collect the balance. This could happen if you had some, but not all, of your taxes erased in a Chapter 7.

At least one of three conditions must be met to qualify a taxpayer for Tax Relief consideration of an IRS Offer in Compromise (OIC) Tax Settlement:

Doubt as to Liability — You, Tax Debtor, can show reason for doubt that the assessed tax liability is correct.

Doubt as to Collectibility — You, Tax Debtor, can show that the IRS tax debt is likely uncollectable in full by the IRS under any circumstances.

Effective Tax Administration — You, Tax Debtor, do not contest liability or collectibility but can demonstrate extenuating or special circumstances that the collection of the Tax Debt would "create an economic hardship or would be unfair and inequitable." This IRS Offer in Compromise (OIC) program is available for any taxpayer, but is primarily used by individuals that are elderly (Social Security), disabled (SSDI), or have special extenuating circumstances.

In the last published IRS statistics, the IRS reports that the average discount on an accepted IRS Offer in Compromise was 88% (only 12 cents on the dollar was paid by Americans with an accepted IRS Offer in Compromise (OIC), and that the average acceptance rate was 47.6%. Remember, if you prepare your own IRS Offer in Compromise, you have a 90% chance of failing.

Given the savings possibilities on your accepted IRS Offer in Compromise (OIC), the determined and diligent team of Tax Attorneys at DWK TAX GROUP specialize in the IRS Offer in Compromise program as well as the Release of IRS Wage Garnishments.

DWK TAX GROUP will not accept any Tax Case if we cannot save you money.
