Oct. 22, 2009 - PRLog -- Chicago (InsuranceAgents.com) – Since annuities and life insurance policies do similar things, its no surprise that some of the top rated annuity providers are branches of some of the largest life insurance companies in the world. Before you can choose the best annuity for your financial investment, you should know the company you are depending on for support.

In a recent article posted by InsuranceAgents.com, “Top Annuity Companies: The Cream of the Crop,” they list John Hancock Financial, Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, ING, Jackson National Life Insurance Company and New York Life Insurance Company as the top five annuity providers. “One of the most distinguishable names in the financial industry, John Hancock Financial is currently owned by Manulife, the fourth-largest life insurer in the world,” states the article, “If you’re a stickler for ratings, don’t worry—John Hancock is ranked highly each year by ratings services such as A.M. Best, Standard & Poor’s and Moody’s Fitch.” Each of the companies listed is rated in the top ten most successful life insurance companies in the world.

Because they offer a wide range of quality annuity services and have a successful history, these top five companies are recommended when looking for annuity investments. Don’t waste your time with a company that isn’t known for its annuity services when you can put your money in the trusted hands of one of these top rated companies.
