

Prelco Distribution Just Launched A New Purchasing Platform

By Prelco Distribution

Dated: Oct 27, 2009

Oct 27, 2009 - Romania - Prelco Distribution launched today a new purchasing platform for it`s clients

- Romania - Prelco Distribution, a leading vendor of catering packaging supplies added three new services to existing aftermarket enhancing the competitive edge of its distribution partners: direct delivery of products to final customer delivery service Express and goods reception. New solutions have been implemented and are available nationally.

Prelco`s partners may opt now for the most appropriate transport solution, the more favorable conditions on the costs and delivery time guaranteed.

On customer request the company is able to deliver goods within 24 hours, directly to the final customer, to any address in the country. The transport solution reduces response time and offers high quality services safely. Thus, the company aims to meet partners who need flexible solutions, helping them develop relationships and dedicated to customer loyalty.

Express Delivery Service is the ultimate solution for partners who want rapid transportation of goods to the consignee, in one day, the time and location specified by them. Prelco provides dedicated resources, delivery is guaranteed next working day from the date of listing order, at the time and address declared.

In addition, it provides insurance of the goods, in cases of damage or loss.

"The ability to deliver products in a defined time or in a very short time will certainly claim a decisive competitive strategy and our partners will ensure market competitiveness. Our goal is to help them develop long term trust and security to their customers. Services announced today open a series of facilities for our partners" said Constantin Ionescu, CEO of Prelco Distribution.

If you want to find more about Prelco Distribution please visit it`s website.

<http://prelcodistribution.com/>

Category Industrial
Email Click to email author