Dated: Nov 02, 2009

Sitbetter, San Diego based premier online office chair and ergonomic accessories seller, hosts a free chair contest this November.

Sitbetter.com is hosting a "Tell us why you would be thankful for a new chair" contest in the spirit of Thanksgiving during the month of November.

Contest Criteria: The contest will run from November 2 until November 23, allowing plenty of time to enter. The contest is open to residents of the United States, excluding Hawaii and Alaska, to all those ages 18 or older. Participants are asked to write a 200 words or less entry explaining why they would be thankful for a new office chair.

Prizes: The best entry will be given the option to choose one of three different office chairs of their choice. When asked why offer three different chair options marketing manager Chelsea Alves explains, "We wanted to give our participants a choice of what they would like to receive, rather than pick one for them. People have different tastes and we want to cater to that." Contestants will get to choose between the Evolution Ball Chair (retail value $159), the Kore Rocking Stool (retail value of $99), or the Knee Sit Chair (retail value $89).

Judging Criteria: The winner will be announced the beginning of December and will then get to choose which office chair they would like to have. The winner will be decided based on who displays the most creativity and uniqueness in their 200 word entry. Extra points will be awarded to those that upload YouTube videos or images of themselves/their current office chairs.

How to enter: Participants can enter the contest here for their chance to win- <http://www.sitbetter.com/nov09>
