

ETF Trend Trading With Big A, A Hedge Fund Manager

This is what Big A, a former hedge fund manager has to say: I have two trading mentors. Yes everyone who is successful in trading has or had at least one mentor. One of them currently trades over 100 million in a closed private fund.

This is what Big A, a former hedge fund manager has to say: I have two trading mentors. Yes everyone who is successful in trading has or had at least one mentor. One of them currently trades over 100 million in a closed private fund. He is one of the original trend followers and does not take on any students or do any teaching. He taught me about half of my technical system and believe it or not is even more private than me. The other half of my system is mine, developed from over 10 years in the market full time.

My other mentor coaches million dollar traders. He did not teach me any of my technical system, but did help me master the other half of the battle; trading psychology and discipline. He charges $250 an hour and I personally buy 2-4 hours of his time every month. He has coached some of the best traders I know. His name is Robert Aguilar and for the first time in his coaching career he is opening up his services to the retail trading environment.

His new 8 week intensive webinar class will help your trading 100%. It does not matter if you are a scalper, day trader, trend follower, or long term investor either way we both know you need more patience and discipline. It does not matter what market you trade or invest in as the psychological aspects are the same. Even if you are a full time trader like me it's a good idea to stay sharp. Robert Aguilar helps keep me sharp.

He is a no fluff guy and tells it straight. That is what is needed in a real coach. Not someone who will tell you everything will be alright, but someone who will not only bring the hammer down on mistakes you make, but will teach you how to avoid 99% of ALL trading pitfalls in the first place. We recorded a short webinar the other day and I know you will get a few nuggets out of it.

His 8 week class starts Monday night the 23rd and is only open to 100 students. I will be in almost every class learning more. Every class will be recorded. Just read the site and call Robert if you have any questions. I don't care if you join or not. Robert just asked me to send a few emails to those on my list. Since I've paid him money I know you could learn something from him that could just save your whole trading account.
