

We WILL be there in response to protest

We have been notified of a protest against our website on January 16, 2010 in Down Town San Diego, near the NBC building. We will be there in response.

Our website offers to our community a very diverse website for nearly anyone to find nearly anything they are looking for. We began this venture from scratch about 7 months ago and have no interest in being told that we are anti-community. We are all about community unity, offering people all kinds of chances to get together and socialize.

Our dream is to provide an awesome and usable resource to people. We have no intention of 'supporting' prostitution on our website. We have taken careful steps to ensure that in this category, "adult services", we make them agree that no sex will take place, prior to them posting the ad.

Please allows us to prove ourselves to the community without passing judgement. These few individuals are upset at other sites, but chose to pick on the small guys.

Thank you.
