

Northwest Home Improvement Company Announces New Director of Human Resources

By Michelle Gion

Dated: Jan 27, 2010

Trina Black is Thrilled for New Challenges

Northwest Home Improvement Company, a local family owned and operated replacement window company, named Trina Black it's new Director of Human Resources on January 26th. Previously, Black had worked as the financing coordinator for the company. Her promotion goes into effect immediately.

"We couldn't be happier to have Trina taking over our human resources duties," says Sharon Gion, co-owner of Northwest Home Improvement Company. "This promotion couldn't have gone to a more deserving person."

New duties for Black will include all paperwork pertaining to employees, managing all unemployment and L&I reports as well as overseeing the payroll process, in addition to her current responsibilities with the financing process.

Black has been with Northwest Home Improvement Company since February of 2007 and has previously managed all of the company's financing, helped manage the daily office activities, and served as assistant to the vice president.
