Feb. 1, 2010 - PRLog -- Small Kitchen ideas : One of the most important thing to consider is having enough space to hold all of our kitchen accessories. There is nothing less attractive than a small kitchen that has a thousand things accumulated anywhere. One way to achieve extra space is to install shelves or sliding doors on kitchen cabinets, there where the space is not generally used because they were too high. Something you need is, of course, a small ladder so you can comfortably reach to these new spaces.

Another thing that is very important is having enough space to cook, no one will have to leave the kitchen, maybe the dining room, when you need to chop vegetables or beat eggs.

Kitchen islands are generally used in large kitchens, however, depending on the arrangement of furniture in your kitchen, you may be able to install a small island. This will provide extra space for storage and food preparation.... <http://www.smallkitchenideas.net>
