Balaji Junior College of Arts, Commerce and Science (BJCACS)

Clarification about the Change of Names

The change in the names was necessitated consequent to a direction from AICTE when we applied for the approval / recognition by them. The founder of Sri Balaji Society is a devotee of Lord Venkateshwara and therefore he wanted to run the institutes in the name of Lord Venkateshwara.

We are running recognised stand alone B-Schools as approved by AICTE, Government of India, Ministry of HRD just like the IIMs. We have not affiliated our courses to university as in the case of IIMs as we want to stand as distinct ones to run most relevant and updated management courses.

We categorically state that we do not have any management institute other than those mentioned above either in Pune or in any part of the country although many are replicating our websites and names to mislead the public.

We have deliberately not spread to any other cities or started more institutes in other cities. You should not fall prey if one claims any association / affiliation with us. If any one does so, you should directly complain to the police.
