About the Book (Excerpts & Info)

Inspired by a newspaper article that told how youth aged out of a foster care system with only $200 and nothing else, this book is an attempt to help those youth and other young people prosper in America. The valuable resources of time, living in wealthy America, easy availability of training, and being debt-free, position our children for being millionaires. Additionally, the Roth IRA protects their money and mutual funds indexed to the stock market diversify their investing. Teaching them to first find their passion and trying to make a living from it is the important message. Their next option is to insure that they can earn at least $11/hr. This amount will help them have a livable wage. Using this factor to build a lifetime earnings and expenses document, lets the youth see the impact of best using those precious dollars. This system shows that it is very possible to end up with more than sixteen times the median net worth of American households. Youth can have $1,600,000 by saving less than $6.00/day. Coupled with saving tips and how to avoid money traps and tricksters, the youth will be well prepared to successfully launch.

Deftly constructed at 180 pages, Help Your Children Make Millions: (And Live Debt Free) is being aggressively promoted to appropriate markets with a focus on the BUSINESS & ECONOMICS / Finance category. With U.S. wholesale distribution through Ingram and Baker & Taylor, and pervasive online availability through Amazon, Barnes & Noble and elsewhere, Help Your Children Make Millions meets consumer demand through both retail and library markets with a suggested retail price of $24.95.
