Born in 1945 and raised in southern California, Ed Hardy now had a lifelong interest in becoming a tattoo artist. While studying print art in California in the late 1960s Ed Hardy did an apprenticeship to become a tattoo artist. In the early 1970s Ed Hardy lived in Japan where he studied tattoo art under Sailor Jerry Collins. In Japan Ed Hardy improved his technique for doing Asian tattoo art. Don Ed Hardy is a famous American tattoo artist and is known as a legend, or the "Godfather of tattoo art" in the tattoo world due to the sophistication and depth of his art.
