The first single from the new album by Black Veil Brides from We Stitch These Wounds has been released, and fans are simply going crazy. Its similar to their first single from their initial EP but so much better.

June 22, 2010 - PRLog -- The first single from the new album by Black Veil Brides from We Stitch These Wounds has been released, and fans are simply going crazy. Its similar to their first single from their initial EP but so much better. The quality of the tracks to the high quality 1080p video that has fans going wild. Andy Sixx has pulled through yet again with his professional style and quality singing. The whole band really has just turned up the heavy notch by 10 and cranked new powerful choruses and brand new riffs that will have your head rocking till it breaks right off.

If you would like this song or download the video for free, ensure that you head to the location below for the download as it will only be available for a very short time. If you have the chance to hear only one album this year, make sure its this one because its going to change your life.
