Flags Still Stands For Freedom is launching its 3rd annual “Support Our Veterans” campaign” to honor and celebrate the men and women across the globe who have served in defense of this country and who have fought for our honor and our FREEDOM.

Long Island, NY –July 6, 2010 Flags Still Stands For Freedom will launch its 3rd annual “Support Our Veterans” campaign” to honor and celebrate the thousands of men and women across the globe who have served in defense of this country and who have fought for our honor and our FREEDOM. We rally every person who is proud to be a citizen of this country to collectively plaster our Country; the good ole United States of America with “Old Glory’s” symbolic colors of Red, White & Blue on Veteran’s Day, November 11th, 2010.

What began as a radio talk show 2 years ago is now blossoming into a full scale virtual telethon much like the ones our mentor; Jerry Lewis does for MDA on Labor Day. This campaign not only shares the experiences and memories of Veterans and their families but highlights the success and triumphs that our Veterans have brought to this Country not just on the battlefield but back here on our home soil.

The goal of the “Support our Veterans” campaign is to remind each of us that our “Flag Still Stands For Freedom” and our Veterans need to know we are supporting them both here and abroad. Using the POWER of Social Media, we will again make our flag and its colors blatantly visible across the globe with a unified statement of support for our troops, both past and present.

In conjunction with this campaign, Laura Kennedy (and her broadcast partners) will once again air a 24 hour live talk show on LauraKennedyLive and simultaneously over several other broadcasting networks; a show dedicated to sharing memories and stories of our “fallen” soldiers; celebrations of the servicemen and women who are still serving this Country; and showcasing the talents and successes of our returning Veterans.

Tell your friend, families, co-workers, and everybody you come in contact with to get involved with this campaign today! For more information about how you can contribute to this campaign, please visit <http://www.FlagStillStandsForFreedom.com> or contact Laura Kennedy, USN-RET, at 516-442-9126.
