

New York City Assault Defense Attorney Opens Launches New Website to Assist Those Accused of Assault

The Law Offices of Michael S. Discioarro, LLC Announced Today, the Launching of a New Website to Assist Those Accused of Assault.

Sept. 17, 2010 - PRLog -- The NYPD has a long history of not properly investigating assault reports. Often the just arrest the person who is less injured. The Law Offices of Michael S. Discioarro, LLC opened a new website today which helps those accused of assault. An assault case can occur anywhere. A crowded nightclub, in a bar or even in the street. These cases receive little investigation from the NYPD and prosecutors just take the side of the person the police chose to name the victim.

"It's really horrible how the NYPD falls don on the job when it comes to assault cases in New York City." Mr. Discioarro said.

Each year, thousands of people are wrongfully arrested by the NYPD for assault and must defense themselves in court. The penalties for assault cases can be harsh. Serious jail time can result if you are convicted. Often it is necessary to conduct a deep investigation into the facts and interview several witnesses. These are things that the NYPD routinely fail to do. The problem is that when the witnesses are gone they can never be found again. If you have been arrested for assault, contact the Law Offices of Michael S. Discioarro, LLC at 917-519-8417 or go to <http://www.nycassaultlawyer.com>
