About Lapez

Lapis is a unique gemstone that is well known for its beautiful rich, blue color and its tiny golden pyrite stars and white ribbons. It is one of the oldest semi-precious gemstones to be used in handmade gemstone jewelry.

About turquoise

Turquoise is a bluish-green mineral valued for its rarity and uniqueness and it is widely used as an ornamental stone. It is originally mined in the southwestern United States by Native Americans. Good quality turquoise is also found in Iran in the Sinai Desert.

Turquoise gemstone is the birthstone for December and also associated with certain wedding anniversaries who are completing 5 years and on some special occasion.
