Oct. 14, 2010 - PRLog -- Attracting quality men (and keeping them) seems to be a near impossible feat for tens of thousands of successful women entrepreneurs, business owners and professionals across the nation. There has been a lot of buzz regarding the plight of the love lives of single women in business. It has been wildly noted on TV and radio that successful women are most likely to have non-existent love lives or at best, not very fulfilling.

Rhonda Cort, author of the forthcoming book "The Smart Woman's Guide to Dating Success with High Quality Men" and founder of MagneticMojo.com will be showing 75 successful women in business how to attract a high-caliber man and make him never want to leave.

Rhonda, a magnetism and upscale dating expert, was lucky enough to spend 10 years living in several countries and working privately with some of the most brilliant, successful, wealthy men and women.

"Traveling the world and working with people from 34 countries has blessed me with a unique, bird's eye view, experience and wisdom around interpersonal communications, attraction, dating, love and relationships. Four areas of expertise I really enjoy working in are intercultural, interracial, international and upscale dating."

However, Rhonda certainly did not start out being the expert. Picture a shy, introverted, depressed girl in her early twenties – self-esteem so low, she tolerated an emotionally abusive relationship for quite some time. "That was me", Rhonda confessed, "and it was one of the most painful times of my life. Everything happens for a reason. I really understand what high-achieving women go through.

I understand feeling insecure, jealous and like all the good men are taken. The constant negative self-talk that's probably going on in your head. Most of all the decision to dive into work and using our success to keep us warm at night. It just doesn't work long-term."

She recalls the night her calling was thrust upon her, "One hot summer night, at a party in Italy, a girl called Daniela pulled me aside and asked me how do I attract all the successful, high-caliber men that I do. She noticed they treated me like a queen. Daniela said she tried and tried, but couldn't seem to attract them. She asked me for help! I was shocked. Daniela was gorgeous, successful and smart. Picture Sophia Loren in her late twenties. I asked myself what did I have that she didn't?"

Until then, Rhonda never thought about how far she had come and what she did to attract quality men. That night, her mission and movement to help successful singles on 6 continents have healthy relationships and juicy love lives was born. "After that night, I set out to write down everything I learned, observed and knew about the high-caliber men I had been working with (and dating). I knew there were definite keys to attract quality men. I realized I had an insider's perspective of affluent, influential men that most women would never discover. The foundation of The Mojo Cleanse(TM) method was born!"

Today, she mentors, coaches and styles successful women entrepreneurs and business owners (and a few lucky men) world-wide. Rhonda shows a woman how to attract a successful, high-caliber, quality man who pursues her, adores her as is and never wants to leave her. "You come first in his life, over his business and yes... even over HIMSELF."

Rhonda says that contrary to popular belief, the successful, affluent, high-caliber man is very different from the average man as he has many options. "Most women vie for his attention and end up getting hurt in the process. For women I work with, there is no competition. They have unshakable confidence, the skills to protect themselves from unnecessary heartbreak and naturally exude their inner sensual siren quality men find irresistible."

Rhonda is so passionate about helping successful women have the love lives they deserve, she occasionally teaches complimentary teleclasses to reach more women world-wide.
