The Law Offices of Michael S. Discioarro, LLC launched a newly designed website for dwi arrests in New York City.

Manhattan DWI defense lawyer, The Law Offices of Michael S. Discioarro, LLC launched a newly redesigned website today for those arrested for DWI. While the site has been up for years, the new design has a lot more information and will give users useful tips on how to deal with a dwi arrest in New York City.

"I think it will help a lot of people" Mr. Discioarro said. The website contains all of the relevant DWI laws as well as information on how to deal with the police if you are stopped. It also allows clients to contact the offices directly. Nationwide, DWI arrests are up and it's the same thing in the five boroughs of New York City. The NYPD routinely has DWI checkpoints and many arrests are a result of these checkpoints. The website also talks about the ignition interlock program. This is where you have to place a device in your car in order to drive it you must blow into it to prove you have not been drinking. The offices can be reached by calling a 24 hour hotline at 917-519-8417 or by viewing <http://www.newyorkcitydwi.com>
