Cricket world cup 2011's tournament director said "It is a big challenge to organize an event of the magnitude of the ICC Cricket World Cup 2011 spread across thirteen venues in the three host countries, but we will ensure delivery of a world class event. It is great to have the World Cup return to the sub continent after 15 years and we would like to make it an unforgettable experience on ground and for television viewers. With 72 days to go, we are all looking forward to The Cup That Counts."

Where Haroon Lorgat, who is chief executive of ICC thinks "With such unique passion and support for our great sport in Bangladesh, India and Sri Lanka, we want the ICC Cricket World Cup 2011 to be a huge success and the most widely viewed cricket event in the history of the game. This is cricket's flagship tournament and the third biggest sporting event in the world so it's important for us to have the right broadcast partner to beam the action all over the globe. And in ESPN STAR Sports we know we have the right partner. Its unrivalled coverage will bring the event to a billion viewers in more than 200 territories. ESS's broadcast of cricket helps to create excitement and interest where there was none before while intensifying the passion and great spirit where it already exists."

The well known Managing Director of ESPN STAR Sports Mr.Manu Sawhney explained "There is nothing bigger in the world of cricket than the ICC Cricket World Cup 2011 and an event as big as this, especially when it is held in the subcontinent, evokes passion and excitement like none other. At ESPN STAR Sports we are committed to bring alive this passion for the game to fans all across the globe in the most engaging manner. We are therefore launching many first of its kind initiatives during this edition including a special Hindi feed for select matches, HD production and Live cricket match coverage through 3G mobile streaming.

We are extremely delighted with the response that we have received for the tournament across the globe and we have already syndicated the rights to more than 200 territories so far. In India we have had a very positive response for this marquee property as well from trade as advertisers fully realize the significance of the event and its traction amongst fans in the subcontinent. Sponsors like Sony, Pepsi, Maruti Suzuki, CEAT, Phillips, Nokia and others have already come on board and we are in discussions with many others."

As a plan to boost the pre world cup mood, ESPN STAR Sports has a number of programs with 2500 hours of lead up programming and 150 hours of original content a part from cricket highlights packages. ESPN and STAR Crickets network has started the lead programs like 'Versus', 'World Cup Upsets', 'Epic Encounters', 'Advantage Australia', 'Gameplan', and 'Road to the Final (Cricket World Cup). They even has started broadcasting the highlights of all previous world cup matches to recollect the memories and joy
