

What is a Millionaire Mind?

How can multimillionaires continue to get rich while millions of people are searching for jobs. How can they prosper while banks are closing and government debt is skyrocketing?

Jan. 7, 2011 - PRLog -- The Great Depression made multimillionaires of Morgan, Rockefeller and Carnegie. What did they know that everyone else missed? Today, during a global economic crisis of unprecedented proportions, with millions of people out of work, some people are quietly becoming multimillionaires. How? It is not what they know. It is not who they know. It is how they think!

The question is, do most people have the skills to be able to build wealth and financial freedom for themselves and their family?

T. Harv Eker says, winning the money game and becoming financially free boils down to 3 things:

1. The right knowledge at the right time.
2. The right vehicles at the right time.
3. The right you... all the time.

In this three-day seminar you'll find out how to jump start your wealth starting today.
