

Rockland DWI Lawyer Launches New Website

The Law Offices of Reuven J. Epstein Announced a New Website for Those Accused of DWI in Rockland County, New York.

March 10, 2011 - PRLog -- You really need to drive in Rockland County. There simply is no viable public transportation system that anyone can usefully use. That is what makes being charged with a DWI in Rockland County so devastating to people. In many cases, jobs will be lost simply because the person cannot drive to work. The Law Offices of Reuven J. Epstein has launched a new website that offers insight into the DWI process in Rockland County and offers valuable information. The fines, loss of license and possible jail time are all real possibilities in a DWI case. Mr. Epstein has handled hundreds of these cases and is familiar with all of the different procedures in each township. Each municipality has a police department with different DWI procedures. Mr. Epstein's firm can be contact by calling 888-692-5879 or by going to his website at <http://www.rocklanddwilawyer.com>
