RealTimeRental and Perfect Places Partner on Vacation Rental Property Distribution

RealTimeRental has launched a partnership with Perfect Places to enable vacation rental managers using RealTimeRental's system to automatically distribute their property inventory to Perfect Places' portfolio of leading vacation rentals websites.

Oct. 21, 2011 - PRLog -- RealTimeRental has launched a partnership with Perfect Places, Inc. which creates a direct connection between the companies systems. Vacation rental managers using RealTimeRental's vacation rental software can now automatically distribute their property inventory to Perfect Places portfolio of leading vacation rental websites. Perfect Places lists over 60,000 vacation rental properties in 80 countries. RealTimeRental's property management system serves more than 100,000 vacation rental homes and properties in North America and the Carribbean.

"Perfect Places has a proven track record of delivering vacation rental leads and bookings and we are excited to add them as a distribution partner directly connected with RealTimeRental's software. We are always looking for ways to generate additional bookings for our customers and the partnership with Perfect Places will drive more bookings," said Sherry Tomasso, Co-Founder of RealTimeRental.

"We are excited to provide vacation rental managers the ability to list properties on Perfect Places websites from within their RealTimeRental system," said Rick Haggart, Founder and President of Perfect Places. "The integration creates rich detailed property listings including pictures, pricing and availability and all information is updated automatically. Travelers viewing the properties on Perfect Places websites see complete and up-to-date information and can make a fully-informed decision without requiring back-and-forth emails or phone calls confirming availability, pricing and features," noted Haggart.

The Perfect Places Vacation Rental Network portfolio includes PerfectPlaces.com, forGetaway.com, LakeRentals.com, CoastRentals.com and MountainSkiRentals.com.
