

Caribbean Lilac's Hunks For Hope

Jan. 14, 2013 - PRLog -- A domestic violence survivor, Lila Green has had her fair share of adversity. However, as she wrote in her latest book, "How to Be Forward and Learn From Life Lessons"©, through the Law of Attraction, she was able to turn her life around and has dedicated it to giving back to various causes. One of them being domestic violence. Hunks for Hope features 6 of the sexiest male models, all lending their talents to fight Domestic Violence. Caribbean Lilac's Hunks for Hope© is a positive calendar initiative that boosts self esteem by tapping into the female psyche and is dedicated to making women feel beautiful and important. Their Facebook page demonstrates the power of positive words and actions <https://www.facebook.com/Hunks4Hope> . Each Hunk is dedicated to writing something positive about women on the page to motivate and inspire women to take charge of their lives and live out their dreams.

Hunks: Jahdal Houston, Xavier Williams, Monty Lans, Jason Dobson, Derrick Jaxn, and Pedro Martinez

Why is this initiative so important? Here are the statistics:

- Every 9 seconds in the US a woman is assaulted or beaten.
- Around the world, at least one in every three women has been beaten, coerced into sex or otherwise abused during her lifetime. Most often, the abuser is a member of her own family.
- Domestic violence is the leading cause of injury to women—more than car accidents, muggings, and rapes combined.
- Studies suggest that up to 10 million children witness some form of domestic violence annually.
- Nearly 1 in 5 teenage girls who have been in a relationship said a boyfriend threatened violence or self-harm if presented with a breakup.
- Everyday in the US, more than three women are murdered by their husbands or boyfriends.
- Ninety-two percent of women surveyed listed reducing domestic violence and sexual assault as their top concern.
- Domestic violence victims lose nearly 8 million days of paid work per year in the US alone—the equivalent of 32,000 full-time jobs.
- Based on reports from 10 countries, between 55 percent and 95 percent of women who had been physically abused by their partners had never contacted non-governmental organizations, shelters, or the police for help.

- The costs of intimate partner violence in the US alone exceed $5.8 billion per year: $4.1 billion are for direct medical and health care services, while productivity losses account for nearly $1.8 billion.
- Men who as children witnessed their parents' domestic violence were twice as likely to abuse their own wives than sons of nonviolent parents.
