

Virginia Psychologists Continuing Education and License Renewals

Virginia-licensed psychologists have an annual license renewal with a June 30th deadline. Fourteen (14) hours of continuing education are required in order to renew a license.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - June 12, 2013 - PRLog -- Virginia-licensed psychologists have an annual license renewal with a June 30th deadline. Fourteen (14) hours of continuing education are required in order to renew a license. Of the 14 hours, eight (8) hours are allowed from home study if APA approved. Six hours must be live. Other requirements include 1.5 hours of ethics, standards of practice, or laws governing the profession of psychology.

The purpose of continuing education is to encourage the highest possible standards for the psychology profession. All licensees are required to participate in continuing education as a licensing condition.

Professional Development Resources (<https://www.pdresources.org/profession/index/1>) is approved by the American Psychological Association (APA) to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. Professional Development Resources maintains responsibility for all programs and content.
