Aug. 25, 2013 - PRLog -- New Children's Reference Book: Fairies and their Friends

Corona, CA, August 24, 2013 – Children's Fantasy author Michael Price provides a curiously entertaining look into the realm of the Fairies, also called Fae. This, his latest published work is available on Amazon.com now for $2.99 (or Free in the Kindle Lending Library).

A connoisseur of Fantasy and Science Fiction, including the most recent additions in Pop-Culture, Michael Price has provided an introductory glimpse into the Realm of the Fairies, including both the most popular, think Tinkerbell, and reclusive such as the Pooka. As an Architect by day, Price has creativity on his mind 24 hours a day. His background is one of meticulous research and accuracy as his career rests on it. "I've always been fascinated with the Fae and with the recent increase in their popularity on television and in film, my curiosity has grown exponentially. This book is the result of my logically incline mind as it meshes with the creativity of life, history and folklore."

Fairies and their Friends is a fully illustrated ebook, with brilliant color images, yet optimized for use in the traditional reader's monochrome displays. This book is for all ages, however children aged 8-12 may find it especially entertaining.
