

Juha Lilja publishes second edition of the book: Aphorisms from the edge of the walk-in closet

The book was originally published before christmas, but a wrong manuscript was used. The second edition will contain more content and has the author information corrected.

MALMÖ, Sweden - Jan. 7, 2014 - PRLog -- First edition of the book was accidentally printed from wrong manuscript. The sales have been stopped and corrected second edition will become available January 8th.

Aphorisms from the edge of the walk-in closet is the first book by the Sweden-based artist and author Juha Lilja a.k.a. APN201. The book contains extracts from his fictional blog "One Way Ticket" at <http://www.owtblog.com>

The blog is a story about a man who is fleeing the world and decides to spend an entire year in his walk-in closet only communicating with others through his blog.

The second edition will render the already sold/distributed books very rare. The second edition contains also the author's most famous work, "The Tree",

The book is available through normal wholesale distribution channels in US as well as through Amazon both in Europe and US,
