Sept. 28, 2014 - PRLog -- War always brings times of desperation, pain and strife. It is in these moments that we find that our faith in God is really all that we have. Our testimonies are the truth of our faith in God. From the mundane to the miraculous, God's intervention into our circumstances are the foundation of our faith. "During WWII Hitler exterminated millions of Jews and today parts of the Middle East are on the same track executing people for their personal belief," says Charles Herchert, CLD App Sponsor and Author of his family's testimony, "The Spirit of Hope". "I want the American public to know when my father was shot down in Africa and taken prisoner in the United States he was treated with respect and dignity by his captures and later allowed return to the country of his incarceration with his family, to start a new life," say Herchert. God's grace is the power of Charles' story and it's the power of all of our stories.

When asked why choose the Christian Library on Demand to help advertise his new book, Charles replied, "Self publishing and promoting a book is a expensive undertaking, but I found that the Christian Library on Demand is very affordable and the staff is easy to work with" says Herchert, "they made it possible for me to promote my book through their Christian media channels on a national and international level for which I'm grateful."
