

Sk8Kings US National Slalom Skateboard Racing Championships

July 11-12 2015 @ N. Loretta Street (at Santa Anita) in Oceanside -- Fast & furious downhill skateboard racing with top talent vying for national titles! Saturday is head-to-head elimination heats & Sunday is high speed giant & hi-tech tight slalom.

OCEANSIDE, Calif. - June 27, 2015 - PRLog -- SK8KINGS US NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS @ OCEANSIDE - Two Days of Downhill Slalom Skateboard Racing – Saturday July 11 and Sunday July 12, 2015

The legacy of the La Costa Open lives on with the 2015 Sk8Kings US National Championships of Slalom Skateboard Racing taking place July 11-12 in San Diego, California at the notoriously steep N. Loretta Street venue – a private road in the city of Oceanside. Top racers from around the world will compete in three different slalom skateboard racing events -- head-to-head hybrid slalom racing on Saturday and 40 mph giant slalom followed by a highly technical tight slalom on Sunday. This event is an ISSA (International Slalom Skateboard Assoc) Main sanctioned competition. Event will run from 10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. both days and is free to attend for the public. Racers are competing in Pro, Master, Amateur, Women and Junior divisions each day.

WORLD CLASS COMPETITORS: This fifth annual racing competition in Oceanside is drawing top talent including: Joe McLaren of Colorado – (5-time World Champion, Reigning US National Champion and World Record Holder), Richy Carrasco of Orange County (4-time US National Champion and multi-World Record Holder), Lynn Kramer of San Diego (11-time Women’s World Champion & World Record Holder), Mike Maysey of San Diego (former World Champion) and Oshean Lehrmann of San Diego (Junior National Champion) among others.

LEGEND OF LA COSTA: The local hills of La Costa, California became famous as a skate mecca in the 70’s era of skateboarding. Home turf for a local crew of top professional skateboarders of the day – La Costa was the site of many historical races. The first La Costa Open was held in 1975 – and the tradition of slalom skateboard racing has been passed on through the decades and lives on today.
