90 Minute Session to Highlight Bertolucci's Tensegrity Touch

BOULDER, Colo. - Jan. 12, 2016 - PRLog -- Join us for this SI-Discussion on Tensegrity Touch.

L Fernando Bertolucci, MD is a biologist and physician, specialized in physiatry (rehabilitation medicine). Roling practitioner since 1990, he has been teaching anatomy, kinesiology, physiology and myofascial release for the Roling community and other health professionals.

The experience of dealing with severe musculoskeletal disorders led him to the development of the Tensegrity Touch (also known as Muscle Repositioning -MR). Tensegrity Touch is featured mainly by integrating bodily segments and consequently stimulating involuntary auto-regulatory responses, of which pandiculation is a prototype. TT has been taught in various countries within different therapeutic settings.

Dr. Ida Rolf founded the work we call Structural Integration. Over the years this body of work has continued to evolve. Words like fascia, integration, alignment, core and layers are known and used in bodywork, research, exercise, movement systems, dance, sports, psychology, etc. Her vision reaches far and has touched many.

About SIconnect Liz Stewart Being a part of the SI community since 1991, I've been fortunate to learn from some remarkable people in our profession. I was profoundly touched and moved by my 10 series and movement work and like many before me, I went on to study SI at The Guild For Structural Integration. After graduation, I worked at GSI which gave me a chance to watch as many demo's as possible. I helped in the office, cleaned the classroom, took photos for classroom models, started assisting in classes and over time joined the Faculty to teach Basic Trainings. Eventually, I left GSI faculty to be part of the larger SI community, offering CE courses on Series Review to graduates from IASI approved schools. Preserving the legacy of our profession, moving forward, and having a place for us to connect is my inspiration for creating SIconnect. Now you have access to teachers, products and people of interest who are helping to shape our field. Besides being a perpetual student, with a wonderful private practice in Boulder, Colorado. I study group dynamics and offer supervision for practitioners individually and in small groups.
