June 4, 2007 - PRLog -- Call it what you will: Bohemian, Boho Chic, Hippie Chick... the hot style that's in right now is all about free-spirited, feminine, and eclectic clothing and accessories. The resurgence of Bohemian fashions as the latest popular style is due thanks in part to actresses Sienna Miller, Mary-Kate Olsen and Lindsay Lohan. Rich colors and flowing fabrics are the key components to achieving this style. Boho Style Clothing tends to be pretty, elegant, graceful and yet very comfortable.

What's best about this style is that there's plenty of room to be creative. Mixing fabrics, colors, patterns and accessories is what this fashion is all about.

One of the features of this fashion movement is the tunic. Its popularity is due in part for it's flattery of our problem areas like the waist and hips. This makes it a fashion hit with women of all sizes, including plus size women. Tunics have been raved about for their comfort, elegant designs, and most of all its versatility, even as plus size womens clothing!

Serendipity is a place where women and girls of all ages have fun shopping because they have the fashion styles you love. You can count on Serendipity for women's clothing in unusual, trendy bohemian fashions, fun and functional basics, accessories, jewelry and gifts from around the world.
