July 11, 2007 - PRLog -- Orlando, Fla. – July 11, 2007 – Ronel Jumpp, CEO of Jumpp Investment Group LLC, a local investment company, has signed with JW Dicks, Esq. and Nick Nanton, Esq. of Dicks + Nanton Agency to expand his company nationwide.

Jumpp Investment Group is an investment company specializing in resort property and second home real estate purchases. Ronel Jumpp, CEO of Jumpp Investment Group and a former University of Connecticut football player, has been in the business for 7 years. He assists clients with building wealth they can enjoy through real estate. Jumpp holds an active license in real estate, home mortgages and insurance. He provides a complete turnkey service by finding: great properties, the right funding source and the best insurance products for his clients’ investments.

Jumpp explains that the biggest strength at Jumpp Investment Group LLC is that they “decrease the risk of real estate investment through education and client training throughout the purchase process. The goal of our clients is to purchase more than one property so we try to make every purchase a building block for understanding the next one. By doing this the client gains a greater knowledge about his investment and what he can do to help make it profitable in the end.”

“Ronel is a talented guy who really understands how to use real estate to build long term wealth,” Nanton said. “We’re excited to work with him in growing his business.”
