Aug. 10, 2007 - PRLog -- Los Angeles, CA August 10, 2007 -- Visionary, music video director Dennis McKinley, is currently working on another new music video. This time, he is working with up and coming alternative hip hop artist Jade Ross for her new track "Cosmic Kiss." From the very first frame, McKinley embraces the music video with the songs vocals, which centers around Jade's sultry lyrical delivery and skillful composition. "The music video will feature skateboarders and a lot of bright and vibrant colors.

We're extremely thrilled about Jade and feel so honored to have directed her first music video. I've directed many music videos and worked with dozens of artists but I can truthfully say that Jade is a Natural Star," shares director Dennis McKinley.

McKinley, born and raised in Detroit Michigan, has now relocated to the West Coast to take his career to the next level. McKinley has completed the famed Stevens Hollywood Film Institutes Directors Program and has booked and completed more than 15 music videos, commercials and his first feature film, Mary Magdalene for this year. In addition, McKinley has embarked on a new venture called, "McKinley Presents." McKinley Presents, is a holding company for current business ventures. "McKinley Presents" represents his passion for creativity and expressing himself through different mediums.
